Description

We offer this blend as an Essential Oil Blend, Liquid Soap, Shower Gel and here as a Spray for the room, on yourself or on linen. Four Thieves essential oil blend Originally developed in the Dark Ages in the midst of the bubonic plague, legend has it that four thieves in France took to stealing valuables from the corpses of plague victims, and even making a few of their own, killing off the afflicted before their illness ran its course. Yet, despite repeatedly being in close contact with the plague, the thieves somehow managed to evade the disease themselves.
